The musical score for "I'm a Man" by The Beatles is presented in a multi-staff format. The top staff is the vocal line, written in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The lyrics "there Oh since I saw her stand - ing there" are written below the notes. The second staff is the guitar line, also in treble clef, featuring a series of chords and a melodic line. The third staff is the bass line, written in bass clef, providing a rhythmic foundation. The fourth staff is the drum line, indicated by a series of 'x' marks representing drum hits. The score is divided into measures by vertical bar lines, and the overall structure is organized into systems. The key signature and time signature (4/4) are indicated at the beginning of the score.

Yeah, well since I saw her standing there
